Academic Calendar

There are two semesters in one academic year.

The first semester (Fall) begins around the mid-September and ends around mid-January; the second semester (Spring) begins around mid-February and ends around late June. Between semesters are the winter and summer vacations.

Course information

Courses offered previously at NCKU can be reviewed by selecting a semester of a certain year. Please note that academic year 113 means AY2024 (adding "1911" gets the AD year) and semester 1 means the fall semester and semester 2 the spring semester.

One may narrow down the search with various conditions available on the page. Courses taught in English can be found with the "Courses Taught in English" button.

Note: Students are allowed to take courses offered by other departments/institutes, in addition to those of their own departments/institutes. Also, they can take courses of different program years and levels. Undergraduate students may take graduate courses as long as the providing professors set no restrictions. Likewise, graduate students may take undergraduate courses, but the credits won't be counted in the total credits earned (will still be shown on the transcript).

Academic transcripts

Transcripts will be posted to the corresponding office of students' home university. It will be done 1-2months after the semester ends.

Tuition Fees

In accordance to student exchange agreement, an exchange student, with nomination, needs to pay tuition fees to his/her home university rather than to the host university. Students, who apply with no nomination, or are from universities that have no student exchange agreement with NCKU, will need to pay tuition fees to NCKU as a foreign student. For tuition schedule, please visit tuition schedule for details.

Living Cost

Meals and other living expenses may range from NT$6,000 to NT$10,000 per month, depending on individual lifestyles.

❤️ Health Care

Private overseas insurance

All exchange students need to purchase their own overseas insurance, which includes the health and accident coverage for the exchange period, in their home country before departure. A copy of valid insurance summary is required for registration at NCKU.

Mandatory NCKU student group insurance

Each student is required to join NCKU student group insurance at around NT$260 for one semester upon registration.

Health Exam

Exchange students will be required to submit their Measles and Rubella Immunization and the chest X-ray Certificate (English version only) for the NCKU Health Center. Details will be explained in the student handbook which will be sent to the students through email after acceptance..

Visa

Visitor visa

Exchange students must apply for a Taiwan (ROC) visitor visa with annotation "FS" followed by the name of the host university, prior to entering Taiwan. More information can be found at our Bureau of Consular Affairs (BOCA) click

PRC nationals need to obtain a special type of visa, Taiwan Entry Permit, to enter Taiwan. NCKU will process the application on behalfs of the students after acceptance.

Hong Kong or Macau residents, holding Hong Kong or Macau IDs may apply for a Taiwan Entry Permit on their own at Taipei and Economic Office \(HK\). click

Students will be responsible for all visa-related fees.

Resident Visa

Exchange students, who will stay for two semesters and hold ordinary passports or other legal travel documents, may apply for resident visa. More information may be found at Bureau of Consular Affairs (BOCA) click
